

Apex

Durable Mobile Receipt Printer

The Apex family offers a light weight and economical solution for 50.8 mm (2 in), 76.2 mm (3 in) and 101.6 mm (4 in) portable receipt printing that meets your needs without sacrificing quality and performance. With today's tight budgets, the Apex series is an affordable way to meet the constantly changing requirements connected to field service, transportation, retail and law enforcement applications.

Designed for mobile workers, Apex portable printers include a simple drop-in paper system that allows users to quickly replace paper rolls and a high capacity battery with easy charging options. The light weight and compact design allows the Apex series to be worn comfortably on the belt or with a shoulder strap during long work shifts. These user-friendly features mean you can go through your busy day knowing the Apex printer will keep up with you.

The affordable Apex offers the features you need, without the costly extras found in other products. The Apex series come standard with wireless communication, fast print speed, ample memory and fast processing power that lets it keep pace with printers costing twice as much. The Apex series is also available with an optional magnetic strip card reader and Bluetooth® or IrDA wireless communication.

The Apex series has over-molded rubber bumpers for extra durability and has been validated in IEC68 certified labs for operating temperature, storage temperature, humidity, shock and vibration.
